MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Mayor's Court.—In this court yesterday
Samuel Campbell, who had been summoned to appear and answer for an ordinance violation of a somewhat aggravated stamp, was "solemnly called but came not." The Chief of Police, who was handed a capias
for the absent party, gave it as his opinion Chief of Police, who was handed a capias for the absent party, gave it as his opinion that the defendant had skipped to parts unknown, but promised to materialize him if found within the corporate limits. A similar process was directed to issue against George Browder, who had been bailed to appear at his Honor's morning levee, but omitted to show up at roll-cail.

Baptist Church.—Rev. Mr. Wright, stu-dent of Richmond College, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Derieux on Sunday at the General Association in Warrenton, Va., preached twice, morning and evening, at the Baptist church in this city. There were large congregations present on both occasions and the discourses gave very general satisfaction. The officers of the Sunday school attached to this church are preparing for a pic-nicto come off the latter part of June, the place for which has not part of June, the place for which has not yet been chosen. The choir is earnestly engaged in the practice of some choice wacai gems to be sung in a grand free the REAL ESTATE described in said deed as follows: All that certain TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND, with LARGE DWELLING and other improvements thereon, containing 110 66-100 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, tying and being in the county of Henrice, on the Meadowbridge road, about two and a half miles from the city of Richmond, called "CENTRAL PLAINS," it being a part of the real estate which was conveyed to the said Alexander Q. Holladay by Stokes and Howison, trustees for samed M. Williamson, &c.

This form joins the celebrated Strawberry-Hill tract, and from its location, opposite the foll-gate on the new Henrico turaptice (which is one of the best roads leading into the city), and being in full view of Richmond, will be a fine investment. The band is nearly all in good order, and lies benathfully. There is on this place an inexhaustible supply of potters clay, with machinery and kiln for carrying on the business, and this offers a good opportunity to some enterprising party to make a capital investment.

TERMS: Cash for so much as is necessary to pay the expenses of the sale and $320 now due, with interest on a portion thereof; $150 due November 20, 1882; $160 due May 20, 1883; $160 due November 20, 1882; $160 due May 20, 1883; $160 due November 20, 1883; $4,150 due May 20, 1884; and the balance upon such terms as the said A.Q. Holladay may direct, or, by consent, the terms may be made more favorable on day of sale.
